Dear Allen,

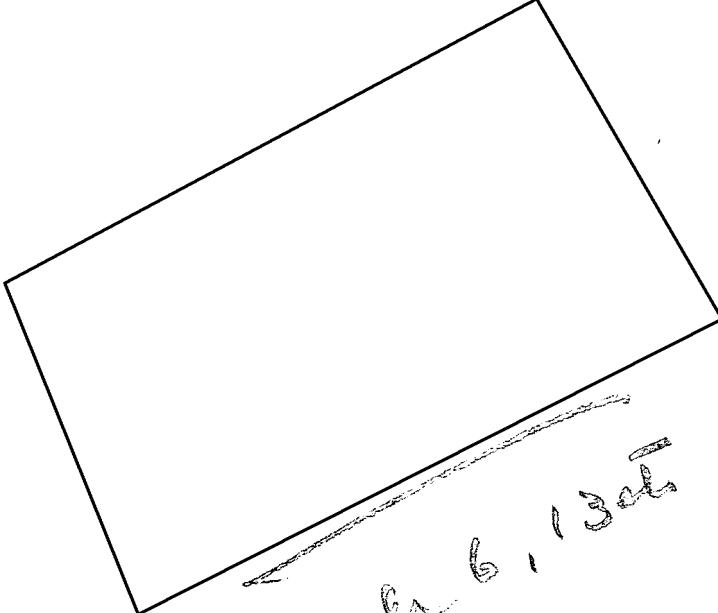

STAT

[redacted] who was in Berlin with you, has contacted you again because he is anxious to work in the same line. If you need any information about him, please do not hesitate to call me, because he is an old friend of the family,

I hear that you are soon going to Washington again and I wish you good luck. I would be very glad to have a chance to chat with you before you get caught in the rush.

Sincerely yours,

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

1. Do you recall a certain [REDACTED] who worked with us in Berlin in 1945. He is [REDACTED] and as I recall did a very good job for us. A few days ago in New York he got in touch with me, and I have a letter from a friend of mine recommending him most highly. Please look up his record and let me have your views.
